REPORT

Session no. 1:

Resource person: Prof. (Dr.) Chidananda Reddy S. Patil

Dean and Director

Karnataka State Law University, Hubballi

Topic: Sustaining nobility in teaching

Sir said that Teaching is one of the most noble professions, playing a pivotal role in shaping the minds and futures of generations. Sustaining nobility in teaching is essential to ensure that educators remain motivated, ethical, and dedicated to their mission of imparting knowledge and values. Sir, discussed the principles, challenges, and strategies for sustaining nobility in teaching, emphasizing the importance of supporting teachers to maintain high standards of professionalism and integrity.

Sir concluded by saying that Sustaining nobility in teaching is crucial for the continued success and integrity of the educational system. By addressing the challenges teachers face and implementing strategies to support their professional and personal well-being, we can ensure that educators remain motivated, ethical, and dedicated to their mission. A noble teaching profession not only benefits the teachers themselves but also has a profound and lasting impact on students, schools, and society as a whole.

Session no. 2:

Resource person: CS Prasanna Patil

Chairman

ICSI – Mangaluru Chapter

Topic: Career opportunities as a Company Secretary

The speaker highlighted that a Company Secretary (CS) plays a crucial role in ensuring that a company adheres to legal and regulatory requirements, maintains proper corporate governance, and manages compliance issues. He discussed the career opportunities available for Company Secretaries, highlighting the skills required, the various roles they can occupy, and the potential for career growth in this profession.

Sir concluded by saying that, the role of a Company Secretary is vital for the smooth functioning and governance of any organization. The career opportunities for Company Secretaries are diverse, spanning various sectors and offering pathways for significant professional growth. By maintaining high standards of compliance and governance, Company Secretaries contribute to the integrity and success of their organizations. With continuous professional development and certification, individuals in this field can achieve remarkable career advancement and make a substantial impact on corporate governance practices globally.
