About the Webinar

The transfer of ownership, rights or interest from one individual to another is a complex but important chore and the Transfer of Property Act of 1882, deals with all such situations. The Covid 19, pandemic has impacted the economies across the world and India is no exception. With income losses, layoffs, we witness businesses being affected. This webinar aims to throw light on analysis of transfer of property and also the concept of lease and licence under the property law in India. This webinar further focuses on the situation which has led to a discourse on the impact of the current pandemic on lease agreements.
