Report on National Seminar on "Comprehensive Analysis of Human Rights Relating to Children in India"

Date: 12th February 2020

Time: 9:30 AM

Venue: SDM Conference Hall

The one-day national seminar on "Comprehensive Analysis of Human Rights Relating to Children in India" was held on 12th February 2020 at 9:30 AM in the SDM Conference Hall. The event was organized with the aim of delving deep into the various facets of human rights concerning children across India.

Inauguration: The seminar commenced with an inaugural session graced by Dr. Ravindranath Shanbhogue, President of the Human Rights Foundation (R), Udupi, as the chief guest. His presence added significant value to the event, given his extensive expertise and advocacy in the field of human rights. The inaugural address by Dr. Shanbhogue emphasized the critical importance of protecting and promoting the rights of children, considering them as the future pillars of our society. His insightful remarks set the tone for the discussions that followed throughout the day.

Sessions and Discussions: The seminar comprised multiple sessions and panel discussions featuring eminent scholars, practitioners, and experts in child rights from various disciplines. Each session was meticulously designed to cover different aspects of human rights concerning children, including legal frameworks, social implications, education, health, and protection issues.

Speakers presented thought-provoking papers, case studies, and research findings, offering diverse perspectives and insights into the challenges and advancements in safeguarding children's rights in India. Topics such as child labor, juvenile justice, access to education, healthcare disparities, and the impact of digital technologies on children's rights were thoroughly explored and debated.

Key Highlights:

- Legal Perspectives: Discussions on existing laws and their effectiveness in protecting children's rights.
- Policy Recommendations: Proposals for policy reforms to address emerging challenges and gaps in child protection.
- Case Studies: Real-life examples illustrating successful interventions and areas needing urgent attention.
- Interactive Workshops: Engaging sessions encouraging active participation and knowledge-sharing among attendees.

Conclusion: The seminar concluded with a closing session that summarized the key takeaways and action points derived from the day's deliberations. Participants and speakers alike expressed their commitment to advocating for stronger measures to ensure the holistic development and protection of children's rights in India.
