Event Title:	Workshop on Environmental Law
Event type:	Workshop
Event Date(s):	20/02/2020
Venue:	College Seminar Hall

Guest/Dignitaries	Designation
1. Prof. (Dr) Tarun Arora	Professor, Dept of Law, Associate Dean, School of Law, Central University of Punjab, Bathinda
2. Dr. Neelu Mehra	Asst. Professor at USLLS, Guru Gobind Singh, Indraprastha University, Dwarka, New Delhi

Summary of the event:

Session 1 - Prof. (Dr) Tarun Arora

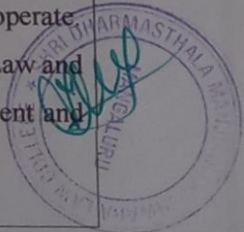

Topic: Environmental Law and International Law

The speaker explained that Environmental Law and International Law are crucial frameworks for addressing global environmental challenges. As the world faces issues such as climate change, biodiversity loss, and pollution, these legal domains provide the necessary tools for sustainable development and environmental protection. He discussed about the principles, key areas, and intersections of Environmental Law and International Law, highlighting their significance in fostering global cooperation and ensuring the health of our planet.

Session 2 - Dr. Neelu Mehra

Topic: Environmental Law & Constitutional Law

The speaker highlighted that Environmental Law and Constitutional Law are two critical legal domains that shape the governance and protection of the environment. While Environmental Law focuses specifically on regulations and statutes aimed at preserving natural resources and preventing environmental degradation, Constitutional Law provides the foundational principles and framework within which such laws operate. She focused on the principles, key areas, and the intersection of Environmental Law and Constitutional Law, emphasizing their roles in fostering sustainable development and environmental justice.
