1.3.1 Institution integrates cross-cutting issues relevant to Professional Ethics, Gender, constitutional and Human Values, Environment & Sustainability and other value framework enshrined in Sustainable Development goals into the Curriculum

The curriculum of Karnataka State Law University's syllabus is meticulously designed to align with the dynamic requirements, reflecting the commitment to excellence in legal education. The introgression of cross-cutting issues is reflected in the institution's dedication for providing a comprehensive and contemporary understanding of legal principles and practices within the prescribed syllabus. The institution ensures that students receive quality education that not only meets the rigorous standards set by the University but also fosters learning of Constitutional and Human Values, Environment and Sustainability etc.

The University prescribed syllabus includes subjects such as Constitution, Professional Ethics, Labour Law, Alternative Dispute Resolution, and Environmental Law which gives wider understanding of human values to students during their academic journey.

Since the syllabus of law courses contains sustainability (as part of Environment Law) and professional ethics, these subjects themselves inculcate the values of environmental sustainability and professional standards to be followed by future professionals.

The institution conducts Add on Certificate course in Subjects such as Human Resource Management, India in the Image of Europe, Criminology and Forensic Psychology, Cyber Law, Prevention of Sexual Harassment (POSH), Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR), Law and Medicine, Paralegal Services, Forensic Science and Law and Fundamentals of Commerce and Management which sensitizes our students on gender equality and alternative settlements which promote Human Values. Training Programs such as Company Secretary Courses were also successfully conducted over the years.

Environment and Sustainability is integrated into the mindset of the students not only through the academic aspect of environmental law but through the establishment of Eco Club, Ranger and Rover, Seminar and Conference on Environmental protection, observation of world Environment day and inviting key resource persons to address themes of environment especially those related to ecology of Coastal Karnataka.

Gender sensitization is achieved through the establishment of Women Empowerment Cell and through the Prevention of Sexual Harassment Cell, value added courses like POSH helps the students to open their minds on gender exploitation and the need for proactive law students to address the same.

Professional ethics is learnt by the students not only through academic subjects, but through internship at Law Chambers, Mock Trials, and Moot Courts, National Level Law related events in observing the proceedings of Alternative Dispute Resolution Center in the College.

Though Students learn constitutional values through their in depth study of Indian Constitution, the establishment of Constitutional Club in the College, gets them involved in discussion and deliberations related to Constitutional dynamics. Their participation in Republic Day, Voters Club (SWEEP), Electoral Club, weekend deliberations on Constitutional topics enhance their commitment to Constitutional Values. Human Rights in the society is learnt apart from the Constitution through the establishment of Human Rights Cell which conducts various events on Human Rights such as Poster Making, Documentation, Short- Film, and observation of Human Rights Day and all these activities promote Human Rights understanding among the students.

COURSE-IV: CLINICAL COURSE-I:

PROFESSIONAL ETHICS AND PROFESSIONAL ACCOUNTING SYSTEM

Objective:

Professions are noble. The movement of all professions, hitherto, has been from chaos to organization, organization to consolidation and consolidation to autonomy and monopoly. Same is true of the law profession also. The prime reason for conferring autonomy and monopoly by the society on the professionals is the fact that they are a body of learned persons and the interest of society and individuals is safe in their hands. The Bar should set enviable standards of ethics and scrupulously adhere to them as also enforce them. It is too good of the society to trust the learned body of the professionals to regulate themselves and not to empower an outsider to sit in judgment over their activities. The trust reposed by the society in profession is to be zealously guarded. The Bar should live up to the expectations of the society. The society has a right to expect of the professionals such ideal behaviour. The course is designed to imbue students with these high values forming the basis of the profession so that they can live up to those standards in their professional life.

Course contents:

UNIT-I

The legal profession and its responsibilities; The equipment of the lawyer; Conduct in Court; Professional conduct in general; Privileges of a lawyer; Salient features of the Advocates Act, 1961.

UNIT-II

Duty to the Court; Duty to the profession; Duty to the opponent; Duty to the client; Duty to the self; Duty to the public and the State.

UNIT-III

Contempt of Court Act, 1972.

Selected major judgments of the Supreme Court:

1. In the matter of D, An Advocate, AIR 1956 SC 102.
2. P.J.Ratnam v. D.Kanikaram, AIR 1964 SC 244.
