Rangers and Rovers

Convener : Mr. Pushparaj K
Secretary : Ms. Shamika J Anchan
Coordinators : Ms. Amrutha Prasad

About:

The Bharat Scouts and Guides is a voluntary non-political educational movement for young people however open to all without any discrimination based on origin, race or creed in accordance with the purpose, principles and methods conceived by the founder Lord Baden Powell in 1907. The first scout troop in India consisting entirely of Anglo-Indian boys was formed by a Scottish missionary in the then central province in 1908. However, the troop was disbanded in 1910. Thereafter nine different scout troops comprising of British and Anglo Indian boys came up in early 1911 in Shimla, Calcutta, Jabalpur, Allahabad, Bangalore, Pune, Kirkee, Saidpus and Madras. Efforts to induct the Indian boys to scouts movement did not materialize till Montague and Chelmsford a secretary to the state of India and viceroy of India in 1917 respectively appeared on the scene. After the independence of India, the final merger of the Boys Scout Association and the Hindustan Scout Association took place on 7 November 1950 under the name of the "Bharat Scouts and guide".

Rover: Rover refers to the boys group.

Ranger: Ranger refers to the girls group.

The unit of Rovers and Rangers started in the year 2019 in SDMLC. Together 110 students have enrolled themselves to the Rangers and Rovers in this academic year.
