Best Practice 1: Fostering Enduring Alumni Relationships

The institution values its alumni as integral members of its community and actively engages them in diverse activities. By maintaining a strong connection with alumni, the institution ensures their continued involvement, enriching the educational environment and fostering a legacy of shared values and traditions.

- 1. Objectives: The primary objectives are to strengthen alumni bonds, leverage their expertise for institutional growth, and inspire current students through meaningful interactions with alumni who serve as role models.
- 2. The Context: Recognizing the wealth of knowledge and experience alumni bring, the institution aims to bridge the gap between past and present students. This requires a structured approach to engage alumni consistently and meaningfully, fostering a sense of belonging and pride.
- 3. The Practice: Alumni are regularly invited as guests and resource persons for events, workshops, and seminars. Special recognition is given to their achievements, irrespective of their current positions. This inclusive practice strengthens their connection with the institution and motivates them to contribute to its development.
- 4. Evidence of Success: The success is evident through active alumni participation, increased contributions to institutional programs, and testimonials from alumni highlighting their sense of belonging and pride in the institution.
- 5. Problems Encountered: Challenges include maintaining updated contact information, ensuring consistent participation, and aligning alumni availability with institutional schedules.
- 6. Outcome: The initiative has created a vibrant alumni network that actively supports institutional growth, inspires current students, and contributes to preserving the institution's legacy. This enduring relationship benefits both alumni and the institution alike.

Executive Summary

Purpose / Objectives:

The "Educating Young Minds: Workshop on Advocacy, Leadership, and Justice" aims to empower youth by equipping them with essential knowledge and skills in advocacy, leadership, and justice. The workshop seeks to enhance participants' understanding of human rights and social justice, while developing their advocacy skills and highlighting the importance of legal frameworks in promoting these causes. Additionally, the workshop addresses youth crime and rehabilitation, offering insights into effective practices and the significance of community support.

Key Highlights:

In Session I, Adv. Swathi Shenoy highlighted the importance of integrating legal knowledge into school curriculums to ensure children understand their rights from an early age. She differentiated between legal advocacy and activism, emphasizing the need to practice and promote laws effectively. She also stressed the role of social media in driving positive societal change, citing examples like Greta Thunberg and the #MeToo movement, and noted how small movements on social platforms could gain global significance. Additionally, she stressed on the importance of people's protests, leadership skills, and policy reforms as crucial components of successful activism.

In Session II, Adv. Mrinal Chand M focused on the need to reform the treatment of individuals who are imprisoned and their families. He shared a poignant story about a child facing isolation due to his father's criminal background, highlighting the necessity for systemic change. He advocated for community sentences over short-term custodial sentences, using Scotland's success with community-based rehabilitation as an example. He also questioned the effectiveness of strict imprisonment, suggesting it often leads to aggressive tendencies and negative behaviors in offenders.

Attendee Summary:

Thirty-two students participated in this highly interactive workshop, engaging actively in discussions and activities throughout the sessions.

Outcome:

Participants gained a deeper understanding of human rights and social justice, learning to effectively practice and promote these principles through legal advocacy and activism. The workshop emphasized integrating legal knowledge into education, showcased the role of social media in societal change, and addressed the need for reform in the criminal justice system, advocating for community-based rehabilitation over strict imprisonment. The interactive sessions fostered active participation, equipping students with the confidence and tools to become proactive leaders and informed advocates for justice and human rights in their communities.

Feedback:

Participants praised the workshop for its engaging and interactive format, noting that the sessions were highly informative and practical. Participants appreciated the emphasis on integrating legal knowledge into education, as it provided them with a clearer understanding of their rights and how to advocate for them. The examples of successful social media movements were particularly inspiring, showing the real-world impact of advocacy. The discussions on criminal justice reform and community-based rehabilitation were eye-opening, prompting many to reconsider their views on imprisonment and rehabilitation.

REPORT

'Training Session on Legal Drafting'

Shri Dharmasthala Manjunatheshwara Law College Centre for Post Graduate Studies & Research in Law, Mangaluru, organized a Training Session on Legal Drafting as part of the Magister Juris, the interclass law fest. The session took place at 3.00 pm on January 23, 2024, in the Moot Court Hall, facilitated by the Moot Court Society.

Technical session

Time	Name and Designation of the Resource Person	Topic
3.00 pm to 3.30 pm	Adv. Premnath, Senior Advocate, Mangalore	Legal Drafting

Adv. Premnath, Senior Advocate in Mangalore, provided an overview of the legal drafting competition, explaining various aspects and specifically addressing the format and guidelines for legal drafting. He offered students a clear understanding of the competition, presenting examples of three specific legal drafts: Sale Deed, Legal Notice (Dishonour of Cheque), and Bail Application. Moreover, he shared model drafts of these legal documents with the students.

The session was then followed by the 'Question and Answer' session where he addressed various doubts and queries by the students. To conclude, it was indeed an enlightening and insightful session.

Report

On 28th June 2024, in the Moot Court Hall, an engaging and informative session on "Communication Skills for Lawyers" was held by Adv. Jayaram Menon, a senior advocate at the High Court of Kerala and who is also a proud alumnus of SDM Law College. This session was organized by the Training and Placement Cell, under the guidance of Faculty Convener Dr. Ashwini P. The Session ran from 1pm to 2pm and was attended by 80 students. The session focused on the critical importance of the English language in the legal profession. Advocate Menon highlighted how proficiency in English language is essential for effective legal communication, drafting documents and presenting arguments. He emphasized that lawyers must master the art of expressing themselves with confidence to succeed in their careers. His insights underscored the necessity of clear and persuasive communication in building credibility and effectively advocating for clients. He emphasized on analyzing, reading and expressing oneself effectively in the language of English.

Adv. Menon further enriched the session by conducting an interactive activity, inviting several students to speak for and against the topic "Why is the English Language Necessary?" This exercise encouraged students to articulate their thoughts and opinions freely, promoting an open and dynamic learning environment. The activity not only helped students enhance their public speaking skills but also stimulated critical thinking by considering different perspectives on the topic.

Adv. Menon motivation and encouragement made the experience highly enriching for all participants. The session was well received, with students appreciating the practical insights and confidence building opportunities it provided. The Successful organization of this event by the Training and Placement Cell contributed to its impact, leaving a lasting impression on all attendees.

Best Practice 2: Empowering Legal Professionals through Entrepreneurship Development

The Entrepreneurship Development Cell (ED Cell) plays a vital role in equipping law students with the knowledge and skills needed to navigate the corporate world and explore entrepreneurial ventures within the legal domain. By integrating legal education with practical exposure, the cell bridges the gap between academia and industry.

- 1. Objectives: The primary objectives are to familiarize students with corporate careers, enhance their entrepreneurial potential, and empower them with the legal expertise necessary for success in diverse professional settings.
- 2. The Context: As the corporate sector increasingly values legal proficiency, it is imperative to prepare students for roles such as Company Secretary and legal advisors. The ED Cell addresses this need by creating opportunities for experiential learning and professional growth.
- 3. The Practice: The cell offers orientation programs on careers as a Company Secretary, emphasizing the relevance of legal expertise in corporate environments. Industrial visits provide students with firsthand insights into the operational and legal aspects of industries. Interactive sessions with successful entrepreneurs and corporate leaders expose students to real-world challenges and opportunities in entrepreneurship and corporate law.
- 4. Evidence of Success: The initiative has led to enhanced student engagement and interest in corporate careers. Several participants have successfully pursued Company Secretary qualifications and entrepreneurial ventures.
- 5. Problems Encountered: Challenges include coordinating industrial visits and securing consistent participation from industry experts.
- 6. Outcome: The ED Cell has successfully empowered students to envision dynamic careers in the corporate and entrepreneurial realms, fostering a generation of versatile and proactive legal professionals.
